In this experiential time together we will play in Illumination – in the fields of pure Love, Light and Grace - to receive freedom and to attain that deep silent connection to the Presence of All-That-IS, the pure luminosity of your being. In the recognition of your true nature, profound shifts occur that allow more grace, freedom, truth, happiness and creative power to flow within you. It also allows you to merge your ego with your divine luminous nature, breaking free of past constraints.

This event is designed to take you beyond all previously felt human limitations. Our time together invites you to fully embody, embrace and step into the Spirit-Realized Being that YOU ALREADY ARE.

As you align with the masterful you, the all-knowing, the all-wise, Illumined Self of your being, you become one with everything and begin to live life in the fullest way possible. Come play in this creation to see what profound miracles will manifest.

2012 heralds a new Soul Path for humanity that is very different from the old paradigm. Great strides and leaps forward have already occurred. A new story is being written as we shift into a new enlightened consciousness. Your fearless soul is requested for this transition as we align with the spirit of heaven on earth. For this half-day retreat, your beautiful, open heart, shining spirit and luminous soul and are all that's needed. Come play in the magnificence of your divine being.

Presented by Rev. Debbi Brown, a gifted Spiritual Teacher, Mentor, Soul Healer, and Spiritual Program Director for the Center for Soulful Living. She is a three-time ordained minister with many years of study in diverse spiritual traditions, including receiving teachings and initiations with Mayan priests, Peruvian shaman and other indigenous elders and wisdom keepers.
